[Spain] You don't often hear start-ups bursting forth from Spain and flourishing abroad. Nowhere near compared to what you see appearing from other European countries such as Germany, UK and France, among others. Why not? Others have noticed this dearth of activity, and there are increasing numbers of initiatives geared specifically toward driving the Spanish start-up scene.

After a lot of planning, Okuri Ventures along

What is Startup Spain?

A private effort to replicate the success of what organizations like the Kauffman Foundation are achieving at Startup Chile and Startup America. To develop new financing options for startups in Spain, our first initiative aims to help traditional investors screen, evaluate and add value to seed internet projects, in a joint effort with Madrid Emprende. A brown t-shirt is shown. At the top center, there is a red Hanes tag with the text 'Hanes Tagless & 1 x/xx/xx' and 'MADE IN USA'. Below the tag, a dark blue horizontal bar contains the word 'GESTIONAR' in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The main graphic on the t-shirt features the word 'TEAMWORK' in large, white, serif capital letters, underlined. Below the underline, the phrase 'Is a lot of people doing what I say' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font, following the curve of the underline.
